Advisers Tell LBJ Soviet Prestige Hurt

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Johnson has been advised by government experts on Soviet affairs that the ouster of Premier Khrushchev has damaged the prestige of Soviet leadership at home and abroad and rendered uncertain the future course of Soviet policy toward the West.

These are among the principal conclusions reached in a new study of the sudden, sensational shakeup in the Kremlin earlier this month. Other conclusions reported to the President, according to informed officials:

1. The best guess about the future prospects for Khrushchev's successor is that a power struggle probably cannot be avoided. The experts say that Communist party boss Leonid I. Brezhnev and Premier Alexei N. Kosygin appear to represent the two bureaucracies of the party and the government and these together with the competitive interests of the military and industrial establishment set the stage for a power struggle.

2. Factionalism in the Soviet Union tends to hurt Soviet interests internally and externally. The destabilizing program of a decade ago is cited as a case in point. It was one of the issues over which Communist China avowedly split with the Soviet Union.

3. The violent wrench which resulted from the sudden ouster of Khrushchev has displayed to the world what experts here term the uglier side of Kremlin politics and this has been a principal contribution to the loss of Soviet prestige. It renders virtually all important aspects of Soviet policy uncertain.

4. While Brezhnev and Kosygin have reaffirmed Khrushchev's policy of coexistence, the new men and their jockeying for power could move Soviet policy in the future in almost any direction subject only to the limits of the Soviet Union's power position.

5. The Communist-ruled countries of Eastern Europe have been given another push toward the West by the shakeup. This is evidenced by the fact that Poland, Hungary, Czechoslovakia and East Germany have in various ways praised Khrushchev's accomplishments instead of following the new Kremlin line of denouncing his failings. This is taken to mean that Eastern European leaders are unwilling to reverse Khrushchev's relatively liberal policies toward the Eastern European countries and that they are determined to look to their national interest as distinguished from their Communist party loyalties.

6. To a considerable degree the ouster of Khrushchev—particularly coming so close to Red China's recent nuclear explosion, has played into Chinese hands. It displayed dissen-

Kremlin Chiefs Busy Explaining

MOSCOW (AP)—The Kremlin's new leaders continued a series of meetings with foreign Communist party officials today to try to quiet the spreading unrest over the ouster of Nikita Khrushchev.

Khrushchev's successors announced they had conferred with the Communist chiefs of Poland as Red delegations from

Gas Blasts Rock Plants

ORANGE, Tex. (AP)—A series of gas explosions rocked two of a string of six petrochemical plants near this southeast Texas oil city Sunday.

Two workers were killed and 17 injured, only one seriously. Ruptures in pipelines carrying highly volatile gas apparently caused the blasts, but company officials said they were unrelated. Neither firm shares any facilities.

The first explosion ripped the Spencer Chemical Co. plant after a leak developed in a line carrying highly volatile ethylene gas under a pressure of 25,000 pounds per square inch.

Gas fogging the area ignited and the shock broke windows at Bridge City, five miles distant. Flames soared 150 feet high and were visible 25 miles to the west at Beaumont.

About three hours later, a series of perhaps five explosions injured three men at the nearby Allied Chemical Co., when an automatic safety valve blew off on a line carrying oxide or ethylene gas.

Ohio Road Toll: 5 a Day
COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Ohio's traffic death rate so far this year is averaging more than five people a day, according to the State Highway Safety Department.

Cleveland Awaits Barry
CLEVELAND (AP)—An overflow crowd of more than 15,000 is expected at Public Hall when Sen. Barry M. Goldwater, the Republican presidential nominee, speaks there Tuesday night.

Once Around Roundtown

CIRCLEVILLE streets were bulging at the seams during Saturday night's Pumpkin Show finale.

The crowd undoubtedly was the largest of any night of the show. Local guessperts however, varied their estimates on size. Some said 45,000 were here, while others figured there surely must have been 75,000. Intensity of the crowd was most apparent just following the Queen of Queen Parade. Many a fan likened himself to the proverbial "sardine." However, the human logjam eventually thinned out after the parade.

ONLY SLIGHT traces of the Pumpkin Show remained in downtown Circleville yesterday. The majority of booths, rides and displays had been dismantled or removed by noon. Working most of the day cleaning up were crews from the City Service Department. Workers stayed at it most of the day hauling away heaps of debris. By evening streets again had a spruced up appearance.

POLICE Chief Robert Temple today pointed out that his department had nothing to do with tickets issued to cars parked in the lot between Main and Franklin Sts. He said this area is controlled by the local Parking Lot Corp. and is not under police jurisdiction. He also noted that his officers did not issue tickets at street meters during the show.

CIRCLEVILLE'S 58th annual Pumpkin Show is now history. And so is Bradford's 36th annual Pumpkin Show.

This small community, in Miami County, also holds an autumn attraction dubbed the Pumpkin Show and admits adopting the event from the Roundtown festival.

The Bradford Pumpkin Show was held this year on Oct. 13-17. According to an article appearing in the Piquette Daily Call, the Bradford show originated in 1936 after John Arnold, a Bradford resident, stopped at the Circleville Pumpkin Show while on a business trip. Each year Bradford residents attempt to make it the "biggest and best ever."

Information on the Bradford show was sent here to Dwight Weiler.

Lady Bird Lauds Dems

BEAUMONT, Tex. (AP)—Campaigning Lady Bird Johnson said today her husband, "a mighty good man to have around in an emergency," is filling the office of president with ideas and experience, not slogans and rhetoric.

On an 868-mile, hop-skip plane tour of three Texas cities—Beaumont, Tyler and San Angelo—she said she was out "to elect the Democratic ticket from the White House to the courthouse."

Mrs. Johnson was folksy and political in her speech prepared for a gathering at Lamar State Technological College here, her first stop.

Mrs. Johnson reminded the college gym audience that Americans have much to be grateful for—homes, jobs, cars, vacations—"but we have a ways to go before we reach the summit."

Prisoners' Travel Plans Cancelled

SPRINGFIELD, Ohio (AP)—Apparently some of the 24 occupants of a second floor bullpen in Clark County's 80-year-old jail had travel plans. But they have been cancelled.

Sheriff Elwood D. Thackeray said an inspection Sunday revealed that four bars had been sawed through and two others sawed partially. A search of the big cell turned up four saw blades, a half-blade, two knives, a pair of scissors and a broken mirror.

Deputies still are investigating in an effort to learn who was planning to depart.

Traffic Kills Only 10
COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Ohio had its most moderate traffic death toll in seven weeks in the period concluded Sunday night. Only 10 persons were reported killed in vehicle crashes.

Barry Plans No Surprises

GOP Vote Hunt Is in Final Week

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Barry Goldwater says he has no big surprises up his sleeve and plans no major speedup in his vote-hunting pace in the final week of his campaign.

The Republican presidential nominee will journey to 16 states in the final days of his challenge to President Johnson. He opens the week's tour today in Salisbury, Md., in an area that leaned heavily toward Alabama Gov. George C. Wallace in the Maryland primary election last May.

After a stop in Dover, Del., Goldwater moves on to New York City, where his schedule sets aside nearly six hours for staff conferences and dinner.

Tonight, he will address a rally in New York's Madison Square Garden.

Goldwater traveled to West Branch, Iowa, Sunday for the burial of former President Herbert Hoover. He flew out from Washington with the Hoover family, and returned aboard his campaign jet.

On the way back to the capital, Goldwater, who does not campaign on Sunday, worked on his New York speech.

He told newsmen he will stick to the basic issues of his campaign in its final days. Goldwater has been calling for a tougher stance in foreign policy, for curtailment of the size and power of the federal government and for a drive against what he calls a wave of lawlessness and immorality.

Goldwater's campaign will take him to Bristol, Tenn.; London, Ky.; and Cleveland, Ohio Tuesday.

On Wednesday, he will carry his campaign to Cedar Rapids, Iowa; Oshkosh, Wis.; and East St. Louis, Ill.

News Briefs

ORLANDO, Fla. (AP)—President Johnson, given a friendly if sometimes disorderly welcome to Florida, continued today a tour of Southern states where backers of Sen. Barry Goldwater claim considerable strength.

Johnson started today's five-city campaign tour in Orlando, promising "a new charter of opportunity for older Americans." Florida is a retirement home for thousands.

CINCINNATI (AP)—Hamilton County Prosecutor Raymond Shannon said today he expects to present evidence to the grand jury Tuesday in the slaying of Wanda Cook, a 24-year-old Bellevue, Ky. nurse.

Miss Cook's body was found in a trunk in the Cleveland railroad terminal last Wednesday. The trunk had been shipped from here.

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP)—Terror and counter-terror, persistent themes of Vietnamese political and military history for many centuries, continue to play a dominant role in the increasingly bloody war raging now.

Airport Dedicated In Wing-Ding Style

CALDWELL, Ohio (AP)—Ohio's newest airport has been dedicated in what local residents call "wing-ding" style.

Gov. James A. Rhodes, state Aviation Division Chief Norman J. Crabtree and State Rep. Edmund G. James were among officials present for ceremonies officially opening the Noble County Air Park Sunday. Air Force Reserve and Ohio Air National Guard planes participated in the program.

The 5,000-foot hard-surface runway was created three miles north of Caldwell by moving 800,000 cubic yards of dirt with equipment donated by local firms. State plans call for a large recreation area nearby.

Feeder Cattle Total Reported Up 21 Pct.

WASHINGTON (AP)—The number of stocker and feeder cattle and calves shipped into the eight north central states in September was 861,000 head, up 21 per cent from a year ago, the Crop Reporting Board said.

September shipments of stocker and feeder sheep and lambs into those states were 433 thousand head, up 2 per cent from a year ago.

The eight states in the area are Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, Michigan, Minnesota, Iowa, South Dakota and Nebraska.

Civilians Rule South Viet Nam

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP)—South Viet Nam's military returned the government to the civilians today, marking the fifth change of government in a year.

Power was formally transferred to the nation's new chief of state, ailing revolutionary Phan Khanh Suu. Maj. Gen. Nguyen Khanh resigned as premier with the rest of his caretaker government.

Suu said the High National Council, which is presiding over the changeover from military to civil rule, would consult Tuesday on a premier to lead the government until a new constitution is drawn up. Speculation centered around former Saigon Mayor Tran Van Huong.

Khanh will continue to wield great power as commander in chief of the armed forces, with a big say in naming the armed forces minister. They will sit on the four-man National Security Council which will have wide power because of the war against the Communist Viet Cong.

Although the U.S. Embassy hailed the shift as "another positive step toward the objective of establishing an effective civilian government," more turmoil was possible.

Suu said he would continue as chief of state for only a short time because his health isn't good. It appeared likely that the civilian politicians would not bow to military pressure willingly. Any such defiance would probably result in another military coup.

Political leaders in Hue said they were prepared to put crowds into the streets to back their demand for complete elimination of Khanh from the government.

Disgruntled Lover Crashes Her House

DAYTON, Ohio (AP)—With a burst of speed and a resounding crash, 21-year-old Gerald E. Massey drove his car into the front of his friend's house here today, demolishing a porch and sending himself to Kettering Memorial Hospital.

And police said Massey will have more problems when he recovers from "undetermined" injuries. He'll face a charge of driving while intoxicated and possibly other counts.

Police said Massey deliberately drove his car into the home after he and his girl argued.

B52s Poised On Guam Now

Big Bombers Carry Nuclear Armament

WASHINGTON (AP)—The United States has posted a squadron of 15 B52 heavy jet nuclear bombers on the island of Guam—within about 1,000 miles of Red China, it was learned today.

The publicized move, made last spring, places the 15 B52s about 5,000 miles closer to Communist China than when they were based in the United States.

The squadron sent to Guam replaces a unit of older medium jet B47 bombers. B52s have at least twice the striking range and carry much more of an atomic wallop than the B47s. The B52s also fly faster and higher.

This is the first time that the long-range B52s have been deployed overseas. The other 600 heavy jets are stationed in the United States, half of them on "runway alert" and ready for takeoff within 15 minutes.

No additional B52s are scheduled for overseas deployment this year, the Air Force said.

Asked the reason for sending the 15 B52s to Guam, the Air Force said the purpose is "to

Grand Prize Float Award Goes to Eloise Beauty Salon

Eloise's Beauty Salon earned the grand prize Pumpkin Show float award for the second consecutive year.

The handsome float of predominantly red and white colors depicted the theme of "Showers and Beauty." A huge umbrella spread over one of the three lovely young ladies riding on the platform.

Judged the most beautiful float of the Pumpkin Show, it was entered by Mrs. Eloise Ford, owner of the beauty salon. The grand prize effort was worth $150.

Judging of the 34 Pumpkin Show floats was conducted early in the show. Winners were announced during Saturday night's Queen of Queens Parade.

IN ADDITION to the grand prize winner, first place awards went to entries in six classes. These top spots were worth $100 each.

Earning firsts in the six classes were: Church of the Brethren, church and school class; Pickaway County Junior Leaders; other youth organizations; Boy Scout Troop 155, Boy and Girl Scouts; Scioto Building and Loan, merchants-commercial Fraternal Order of Police, fraternal and civic; Residents of Trine St.; Canal Winchester, special class.

Second and third places respectively in the classes were: Church and school—St. Joseph School; First Methodist Church.

Other youth organizations—Curtain Callers.

Boy and Girl Scouts—Order of the Arrow; Cub Pack 30 of Kingston.

Merchants—commercial—Ed Wallace Realty Circleville Oil Co.

Fraternal and civic—Lions Club; American Cancer Society and American Red Cross, tied for third.

Special (out of city entries)—Phi Delta Phi of Chillicothe; Church of Chillicothe.

Second prize winners in each class received $60. Third prize was worth $40.

Consolation prizes were awarded to all other entries by the Pumpkin Show Committee. Judges commended the 34 entries for their beauty, size and appeal. They said naming the prize winners was a difficult task due to the keen competition.

OHIO FESTIVAL QUEEN — Karen Kinsey (right) was crowned Ohio Festival Queen Saturday evening by Ruth Anne Lefter, Florida's Sun Goddess. Miss Kinsey represented the National Clay Week observance at Uhrichsville, and was selected from a field of 10 Ohio beauties. She is a student at Bowling Green University. First runner-up is Carolyn McDonald, Miss Parade of the Hills, Nelsonville. Second runner-up is Sharon Osborne, Miss Sweet Corn Festival, Millersport. The beauty queen will represent Ohio throughout the year in many national events, including the Parade of States in April at St. Petersburg, Fla.

'64 Soybean Harvest Nearing Completion

WASHINGTON (AP)—The 1964 soybean harvest is rapidly approaching completion in the corn belt area, according to the government's weekly Weather and Crop Bulletin.

It said mostly sunny dry weather—good for harvesting—prevailed last week except for light rain in Indiana and Ohio. The harvest in Iowa was 90 per cent complete, and 85 per cent complete in Minnesota, Indiana, and Ohio.

Pie Eater Sets New 'World Mark'

A new worlds record was established in the Pumpkin Pie eating contest Saturday afternoon, according to Pumpkin Show director Jim Shea.

Deward Schaeffer Jr., 531 N. Court St., a Circleville High School athlete, consumed an entire pie in the blazing time of two minutes and 40 seconds.

Schaeffer clipped 20 seconds from the old record of three minutes flat set last year by Ronald Amman of Ashville.

Amman was second this year. In the girls division perennial champion Karen Gaines of Chillicothe and C. W. Hobson of Columbus, second and third respectively in the mens division and Nancy Fogler, Laurelville, who was last year's overall champion.

Little Miss Fogler, who is 12 years old, copped the ladies division of the hog calling contest. Second place went to Chris Zehner 131 E. Mound St., while Martha Russell of Williamsport was third.

A trophy was presented to the Pumpkin Show champion by a representative of the Davco Fertilizer Co.

Stolen Auto Is Recovered

Pickaway County Deputy Sheriff Gene Kerns recovered an auto stolen from the parking lot of Defenbaugh Funeral Home 1 a. m. Sunday, less than 30 minutes after the theft occurred.

The auto, belonging to Jack Wise of 351 Meadow Lane, was taken by a 16-year-old Columbus youth.

Deputy Kerns spotted the auto northbound on Route 23 at 1:24 a. m. near South Bloomfield. The vehicle was stopped a few minutes later and the youth was placed under arrest.

He is being held in the Pickaway County Jail.

B52s Poised

The type of B52 stationed on Guam has an effective operating range of more than 6,000 miles with the fuel it carries in its own tanks.

Refueled by aerial tankers, the eight-jet B52s can extend their ranges by thousands of miles.

Each B52 can carry a brace of the heaviest nuclear weapons in the U.S. arsenal — weapons packing explosive equivalents of 24 million tons of TNT.

Furthermore, B52s are fitted to launch Hound Dog missiles. These nuclear-headed missiles can blast ground targets more than 500 miles from their mother bombers.

To confuse enemy defenses, B52s can fire off decoy missiles called Quail. The 13-foot-long Quail flies at B52 speeds and altitudes, producing a "blip" on enemy radar similar to that made by an actual B52.

The Air Force gradually has been retiring its aging B47s. A one-time fleet of about 1,400 of the six-jet craft has been reduced to about 400 planes.

Florida Campaign Gets Very Rough

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — Florida's gubernatorial campaign, one of the roughest in the state's history, has an added distinction this year.

It's the only one in the country that's been fought partly on foreign soil.

The campaign trail has led to Nassau, Bahamas, a picturesque resort and British possession about 60 miles east of Miami.

The Democratic nominee, Haydon Burns, went there Oct. 16 in an effort to disprove a charge that he had $1.2 million stashed away in a Nassau bank. The charge still hasn't died.

It came from Burns' opponent, Charles P. Holley, a St. Petersburg lawyer who has created more furor in this heavily Democratic state than any Republican gubernatorial candidate in years.

Holley, 39, is serving his second term as a state representative.

Burns, 52, has been mayor of Jacksonville 15 years. This is his second race for governor. He defeated six opponents in the Democratic primary, campaigning in opposition to the federal civil rights bill, now law.

Until Holley made his hidden money charge, Burns had pretty much ignored his Republican opponent, whose party hasn't held the governor's chair since 1872.

But Holley made big headlines, and what had been a dull campaign suddenly became a slam-bang battle.

At a news conference in Tallahassee, Holley displayed ledger sheets purporting to show that Burns had the Nassau bank account as of Sept. 30, 1964.

Holley said his own net worth was between $12,000 and $20,000. He wondered aloud how Burns got $1.2 million.

Three days later, after considerable fanfare, Burns flew to Nassau.

There, with two newsmen chosen by lot from among 19 who accompanied him on the flight, Burns met with manager William Ellis in the Bank of Nova Scotia.

Ellis handed out a prepared statement which read:

"Mr. Haydon Burns has authorized us to state that to the best of our knowledge he has never had any dealings with us directly or indirectly, does not maintain an account with us now and has not maintained one at any time in the past."

But Holley called again for Burns to disclose his financial affairs, including his net worth and how he acquired it.

Burns said he got $12,500 annually as mayor. But, he declined to say how much he was paid as a private business con-

The World Today

WASHINGTON (AP) — One of the most unpleasant presidential races in history moves toward the election only eight days off with nothing to indicate the candidates can say anything now to affect the results.

This campaign has been more distinguished for ham than heat and for slogans than logic, more memorable for name-calling than discussion and for generalities than gentility.

One pre-campaign prediction turned out early to be true: that it would be rough, perhaps one of the roughest. Now near the end come cries of pain from both sides.

John M. Bailey, the Democratic national chairman, has appealed directly to Sen. Barry Goldwater to end what Bailey called the flow of "venom and filth the Republican party has injected" into the campaign.

Dean Burch, the Republican national chairman, filed a complaint with the bipartisan Fair Campaign Practices Committee charging the Democrats are waging a "campaign of fear, smear, cover-up, news suppression, arm-twisting."

This was after Bruce L. Felknor, executive director of the committee, had a few words himself to say. He said this was the "bitterest and most vicious campaign that I've ever observed or, for that matter, heard tell of."

The committee's magazine Fair Comment, added: "The use of guilt by association, suliant. Nor would he disclose his net worth, telling newsmen: "That's none of your business."

A week after Burns' Nassau trip, Holley said the Democratic nominee's income tax returns for 1961 through 1963 were being investigated by the Internal Revenue Service.

fraudulent documentation, cruel and unusual punishment of whipping boys and evasions of differences may be setting a record" this year.

Yet, in this campaign, for a change, the basic difference between the two presidential candidates was known to all before the campaign began.

For a generation at least the differences between Democrats and Republicans — in their attitude toward life in America and the responsibilities of government — were so small that campaign after campaign was a personality contest.

Not this year. From the beginning there was this clear distinction between President Johnson and Goldwater: Johnson stood for the welfare state, Goldwater for real conservatism.

As a result, obvious enough, the choice the voters make Election Day will shape the direction of America for years to come.

Since this basic difference between Johnson and Goldwater was clear before the campaign began, the campaign didn't add much on this score. If that had been all, the voters could have chosen early and forgotten the campaign.

It wasn't. The gulf between the two viewpoints could not be considered separately from a question of equally fundamental

Does BLADDER IRRITATION MAKE YOU NERVOUS?

After 21, common kidney or bladder irritations affect twice as many women as men and may make you tense and nervous from too frequent, burning or itching urination both day and night. How Weather Looks Today

OHIO FIVE-DAY FORECAST

Warm weather is expected throughout the week with the temperatures averaging 10-12 degrees above the normals. Representative normal highs and lows are Cleveland 56-37, Columbus 59-38 and Cincinnati 62-42. Warm throughout the week. Little day-to-day change in temperature southern half of state but temperatures will be a little cooler Wednesday and Thursday northern half of state than on Tuesday and the end of the week. Rainfall will average one to two tenths inches as widely scattered showers Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday.

Goldwater is less optimistic as he prepares to campaign these last few days. He is known to rate his chances as less than overwhelming.

The nation will probably outdo the candidates in being glad when this is over.

Today is Monday, Oct. 26, the 300th day of 1964, there are 66 days left in the year.

Today's highlight in history:

On this date in 1825, a parade of vessels led by the canal boat Seneca Chief left Buffalo for New York to mark opening of the Erie Canal.

On this date in 1923, electrical genius Chalmers P. Steinmetz died at Schenectady, N.Y.

In 1924, Lew Dockstader died; he was the best-known star of the minstrel show period on the American stage.

In 1940, the British steamer Empress of Britain was torpedoed and sunk off Ireland with the loss of 45 lives.

In 1956, at the United Nations, 82 nations agreed on a new international atomic energy agency for peaceful uses of the atom.

In 1957, Marshal Georgi Zhukov was ousted as Soviet defense minister on charges he tried to work up a personality cult.

Ten years ago — An attempt was made to assassinate Egypt's Gamal Abdel Nasser.

Five years ago — A record peacetime budget for 1960 was submitted to the Russian parliament—the Supreme Soviet.

One year ago Soviet Premier Khrushchev indicated the Soviet Union would not be a part of a race to place a man on the moon.

"...the trick of using people's money to buy people's votes..."

The following editorial was published on the FRONT PAGE September 29, 1964, of one of Ohio's greatest newspapers!

THE CINCINNATI ENQUIRER

You Know He's Right!

IN THE decade since he entered public life, Barry M. Goldwater has been telling the American people things that many of them have not enjoyed hearing.

For he has not seen politics as the art of misleading the American people, or as the trick of using the people's money to buy the people's votes, or as the science of manipulating public "images."

He has seen politics instead as a means of creating an environment in which man can grow.

Almost alone among the political figures of our time, he has had the audacity to suggest that man has the capacity for growth, that man has a mind and a spirit and a heart as well as a stomach.

This has represented a notable departure from the cynical diet to which the American voter has become accustomed.

For Senator Goldwater does not ask the American people to barter away one after another of their liberties in exchange for what the politicians are wont to call "security." He thinks — and so, once, did all Americans — that man has a higher purpose than to retire to a future of Federal handouts. He thinks — and so, once, did all Americans — that the American Revolution produced some ideals and principles that deserved sharing by men everywhere.

But America, we fear, has been seduced by a philosophy that is gradually hacking away at the tree of liberty. The practitioners of this philosophy long ago lost faith in the people and in the people's wisdom. Hence, they have appointed themselves to determine what the people need and what they must have. And in the process, they have, little by little, year by year, reworked the very fabric of America.

They began by "helping" the farmer. And now the farmer can no longer raise what he pleases. Indeed, he must even support a Department of Agriculture that sends planes over his property to see what he plants.

They began by "helping" the worker. And now the workingman finds himself being spoken for on a wide variety of social issues by a self-perpetuating clique of labor politicians who have forgotten what a dinner pail looks like.

They began by "helping" the businessman. And now the businessman must prostitute himself for government contracts and the forlorn hope of immunity from bureaucratic harassment.

They began by "helping" the aged. And now the retiree finds himself penalized if he earns enough to buy himself a good cigar.

They began by "helping" the restive downtrodden. And now the streets of our cities have become veritable jungles.

Is this the America we inherited?

Is this the America we want to bequeath to our grandchildren?

For daring even to ask these questions, Barry Goldwater has become the most slandered man in American political history. Arrayed against him is the whole propaganda apparatus of the Federal government, to say nothing of its allies in the "liberal" establishment.

He is portrayed as a poisoner of children, as a creature of the night riders, as a pawn of the militarists and the warmongers.

To see the viciousness of the vilification heaped upon him is to begin to understand the desperation with which his enemies are trying to cling to the perverted political order they have been foisting upon America. Their purpose is to do considerably more than defeat him at the polls: they seek literally to crush him lest any other muster the courage to ask them to account for their sordid works.

The real issues of 1964 are far simpler than the defenders of entrenched statism would have us believe.

The issues boil down to whether it is the destiny of the American people to become the servants of a leviathan state at home and to cower before totalitarian aggressors abroad.

Barry Goldwater says it is not. And in your heart, you know he's right.

This is why we believe 1964 to present one of the great opportunities in America's political history. This is why we believe Senator Goldwater's election to the presidency to be the most urgent task to which the American people can devote themselves.

Another Cyprus?

The worst threats directed against Queen Elizabeth on her just concluded visit to French-speaking Quebec failed to materialize. But the sporadic boos and disorders of the separatists nullified the royal effort to demonstrate Canadian unity.

For this separatist movement, the English-speaking Canadians are not altogether blameless. The Anglo-Canadians have not worked very seriously toward economic and political equality for Quebec. And Quebec has largely clung to its 18th century standards, and its insular attitude toward its neighbor provinces.

Yet if Quebec won independence, it could be worse off economically. And without its French province, Canada would be deprived of one of its reasons for — and defenses against — its nagging fear of being absorbed by the United States.

What Quebec really needs is to become integrated into Canada while retaining its cultural autonomy, all with the cooperation of its English-speaking compatriots. The nightmare of a potential Cyprus on our northern border would then fade.

Kremlinologists

By John Chamberlain

The so-called "Kremlinologists" are a strange breed. Some of them are now saying that they knew a year ago that Khrushchev was due to get the boot. But you can search the press in vain for any written prophecies by the Kremlinologists of a change in the higher echelons of Soviet society. On the basis of their published performances, one can write most of them down as wise guys after the fact.

These observations do not apply to one particular expert on Communist affairs. I refer to Professor David Nelson Rowe of Yale University, who has turned up in Barry Goldwater's camp as an adviser on Far Eastern affairs. Dave Rowe, who was born in Nanking, China, and lived in the Far East until he was old enough to study and take various degrees at Princeton, the University of Chicago, and Harvard, has always been willing to put his prophecies on the line before the fact.

A year or so ago he was saying that "the current ideological disputes between the Russian and the Chinese Communists derive much of their rancor from the fact that they constitute basically a lovers' quarrel." At the time this was a view not generally held by the Kremlinologists. It is still not a popular thing to say. But, with Khrushchev out, Professor Rowe's opinion cannot be dismissed arbitrarily. The new bosses in Soviet Russia, Leonid Brezhnev and Alexei Kosygin, are speaking far more respectfully of Mao Tse-tung than Khrushchev was in the habit of doing.

Professor Rowe did not doubt that the Russia of Khrushchev was bent on disciplining Red China. He said the Chinese Communists, "like a starry-eyed young bride whose sentiment is stronger than her arithmetic, kept on writing blank checks on the future until the Russian sources of help had to be cut off lest all resources of the family be swallowed up in Chinese Communist deficits." The Russians had to terminate their economic and technical cooperation with Red China "to cut losses and to allow the Chinese Reds to muster their resources to pay back. . . . The debts already incurred to the USSR."

The Rowe theory, expressed a year ago, was that Papa Russia was chastising the Red Chinese child for his own good. When, in 1958, Mao attacked the Nationalist Chinese offshore stronghold of Quemoy, the Red Chinese Migs were shot down at a ratio of twelve to one. Soviet Russia couldn't see the sense of feeding more Russian-built Migs into such a cauldron.

Now, so Rowe said, a family crisis over looming bankruptcy was one thing, and a deep ideological split was another. While Papa Russia was chastising the erring child by withdrawing military aid and atomic cooperation, an old pattern of barter exchange between the two countries continued. Soviet oil flowed into China "at the same levels as before the 'rift' began." There was "seemingly no rupture in rail communications between Communist China and the USSR." In fact, so Rowe reported, "we hear that the rail systems of the two countries are to be mutually standardized, railway personnel to be exchanged, and rail cars of each country to be used in the other."

While Khrushchev was throwing his verbal bombs at Mao, the Red Chinese continued to wage a cheap sort of war against Laos and South Vietnam. The use of Red guerrillas in Southeast Asia put no strain on the Soviet budget. So "the best efforts of Anglo-American diplomacy" to get Khrushchev to act on his agreements in regard to the neutralization of Laos failed completely.

Today certain Kremlinologists are saying that the West ought to get together with the Russia of Brezhnev and Kosygin to put an end to Red Chinese atomic experimentation. This might involve preventive war, even the "defoliation" of the areas in which Mao is carrying on his atomic development. But if Professor Rowe is right, there will be no deal between Russia and the West to restrain the Red Chinese.

Since all prophecy is hazardous, Rowe could be wrong. But he is one Kremlinologist who is willing to stick his neck out. We should have more of his breed.

The Business World

By Sam Dawson

NEW YORK (AP) — A jump of around 20 per cent in after-tax profits this past summer over the summer of 1963 is being spelled out in the earnings reports coming in now from U.S. business firms.

A still bigger rush of earnings statements for July-August-September, due in the next two or three weeks, is expected to confirm the impressive gain. To come are some of the largest oil, motor and steel companies. Most seem sure to be ahead of a year ago.

In the first half of this year corporate profits as a whole had topped the year-ago figure by around 18 per cent. The third quarter returns are likely to push the annual rate of $32 billion. In 1963 the nation's corporations cleared $26.7 billion after taxes.

Showing advances in the latest accounting period are most of the metal, electronic, chemical, metal working, machinery, food, retail, drug, building material, and utility companies.

Stockholders already are being rewarded. In September cash dividend payments topped $2.5 billion, a 13 per cent rise over the 1963 month. Stock traders noted this was an improvement on the 10 per cent rise for the first nine months as a whole and brought stockholder payments this year to $12.5 billion. Hopes are strong for a generous flow of year-end extras.

Many companies already seem assured of setting record high sales, profits and dividend payments for the entire year. But strikes, rising production costs, and in some cases a slowdown in sales and new orders threaten other companies with a slackening of the profit pace in the current and final quarter.

Even in the booming third quarter there were individual companies that fell behind year ago results, usually for highly individual causes rather than ills in their own industry. Among them were Chrysler, Kennebec Copper, R. J. Reynolds Tobacco, Scott Paper, Libbey-Owens-Ford Glass, Corn Products, United Fruit and Gillette.

These were exceptions to a much longer list of gainers, and to the general profit trend which has been upward in most quarters in the last two years. Leading names in the corporate field already have reported increases: American Telephone & Telegraph, International Business Machines, General Electric, Aluminum Company of America, Du Pont, American Tobacco, St. Regis Paper,

American Can, Eastman Kodak, Xerox.

Steels are riding a boom in profits as well as in production and new orders. Among the first to report increased earnings for the third quarter are: Republic, Jones & Laughlin, Armco, Allegheny Ludlum, Kaiser, Youngstown Sheet & Tube and Acme. The two largest, U.S. Steel and Bethlehem, report later this week and stock traders expect them to join the parade.

Nonferrous gainers include Reynolds and Kaiser Aluminum as well as Alcoa, and also National Lead, Eagle-Picher and General Bronze.

Electrical equipment and electronics reports are overwhelmingly on the upside, along with household appliances and business machines. Included are GE and Westinghouse Electric, Carrier, Honeywell, Trane, Maytag, Texas Industries. Also there are Polaroid, Electrolux, Worthington, Ronson, Thompson Ramo Wooldridge.

PLYMOUTH ROCK, where the Pilgrims first landed, was at the time (according to native researchers) a great big boulder, standing alone on an otherwise rock-free beach.

Says a Plymouth guide, "Why any sensible seaman would pull alongside a rock like that when he had all this fine beach at hand is more than I can figure." Most of the Rock of those times is now buried deep in the sands, other fragments have been chipped off by generations of souvenir hunters. Even the part that remains is shattered. Its two sections are held together by a large band of concrete.

To Quit Smoking, Blow Bubbles

NEW YORK (AP) — Things a columnist might never know if he didn't open his mail:

If you want to quit cigarettes, one way to sublimate the smoking urge is to blow soap bubbles instead. But remember this: Don't inhale!

The largest creature that ever lived on land or sea is the blue whale. It weighs up to 100 tons — as much as 16 large elephants — and yields 25 tons of oil.

Children are sometimes told they suffer from "growing pains," but actually there is no such thing. The aches are the result of strain or muscular fatigue.

The world is in no danger of a fuel shortage. The oceans contain enough deuterium, a heavy isotope of hydrogen, to supply thermonuclear energy for hundreds of years.

Ever wonder how the woodchuck got its name? According to the Old Farmer's Almanac, settlers originally called the animal "woodchuckle," because when it scurried into the safety of its den it would chuckle at its pursuers.

They are now making costume jewelry out of processed coal. When your wife gets tired of it, she can always use it to help heat the house.

Home is now the place where women go to after work. There are some 24 million gals holding jobs. It is estimated that by the

Speaking of YOUR HEALTH...

By LESTER L. COLEMAN, M.D.

Workers exposed to intense heat and humidity, as in glass factories, steel industries and mines, are now getting some relief from this severe stress.

An air-cooling device has been created to provide fresh, clean air for those whose energies are sapped by overwhelming heat.

The newly designed individual cooling unit weighs about 20 ounces and is carried by the worker on his belt. Compressed cool air is distributed over the trunk and head of the worker, relieving the burden that extreme heat places on the heart and lungs.

These inexpensive vortex cooling units also offer special advantages to the companies that provide them for their workers.

The comfortable employee works at an increased level of production, and many people may be hired for "hot jobs" who otherwise could not stand the strain of excessive heat.

Vitamin C or ascorbic acid, has recently been used in fairly large doses for the relief of low back pain.

At the Baylor University School of Medicine, Dr. James Greenwood treated 500 patients with back pain caused by "disc" problems, and the results were gratifying.

Dr. Greenwood discovered the effectiveness of Vitamin C from personal experience in seeking to relieve the discomfort of his own troublesome back. At present, he recommends 500 milligrams per day taken in two doses with an increase to 1,000 milligrams daily if discomfort persists or if strenuous exercise is anticipated.

He further states that large doses of Vitamin C have been effective in markedly reducing muscular soreness resulting from exercise.

There is little or no danger in the use of large doses of Vitamin C, except possibly when taken in combination with cortisone or its derivatives. Nevertheless, such treatment should be undertaken only under the direction and supervision of a physician.

Even in the light of the encouraging results that have sometimes spared disc patients surgery, it is imperative that the precise cause of low back pain be diagnosed by a physician before the Vitamin C treatment is tried.

One's own doctor can best evaluate this new approach to the persistent, annoying and incapacitating disc and low back disorders.

Hepatitis has now been laid wide open for active study, with prevention and cure as the prime objectives.

Du Pont Lists Winners in Bike Safety

Approximately 100 children of Du Pont employees participated in a bicycle safety project conducted by the firm's "Off-the-Plant" safety committee.

To become eligible for prizes offered, children and parents signed questionnaires attesting they had jointly covered rules listed on bicycle safety.

The project was designed to coincide with and implement the citywide Bicycle Safety Program. Committee officials said many children and parents in surrounding areas responded.

The aim of the committee was to stress to parents that bicycle riders need to know more than just how to ride a bike. Emphasis was placed on the importance of knowing that rules controlling automobile operations also apply to bicycle riders.

Theme of the project dwelled on the motto, "The Safety of Our Children Must Be the Concern of All Parents."

Name Census Crew Leader

Martha E. Cromley, Ashville, has been named a crew leader for the 1964 Census of Agriculture. She is one of about 1,825 persons throughout the country to receive the appointment.

The new crew leader will supervise a team of census enumerators who will visit all farms and ranches in Pickaway and Fayette counties to collect official census questionnaires from farm operators. Enumeration of all farms in the county will take place in November and early December.

The census will be taken in the following way: shortly after November 5, the Bureau of the Census, an agency of the U. S. Department of Commerce, will mail census questionnaires to all rural boxholders. Those required to fill out the forms should do so and hold the questionnaires until a census enumerator comes to collect them. At that time, the enumerator will help answer any questions that may have proved troublesome.

The crew leader is a key person in conducting a Census of Agriculture. He recruits and trains the enumerators, schedules their work, reviews the accuracy of completed forms and conducts interviews.

The Census of Agriculture is taken every five years in years ending in "4" and "9" to gather information on the nation's agricultural resources and production. Such information is vital in making decisions affecting many segments of the U. S. economy. Data gathered include the number and size of farms, acreage and harvest of crops, livestock inventories, and information on farm equipment and improvements and income and some production expenditures.

The information will be published starting in 1965 for counties, states, and the nation.

As early as 450 B. C., the Greeks in Athens required foreigners to pay taxes; and taxes are mentioned in the Bible.

Dear Abby: By Abigail Van Buren

Not for Art's Sake!

DEAR ABBY: Our son is an art major at a university and he spent the summer in Italy. He had a lot of stuff shipped home that he bought over there. Mostly they are statues of men and ladies and even little children. Everybody naked. There's not a stitch on any of them. Our son wasn't raised that way, but college ruined him. The preacher called on us yesterday and, when I saw him coming up the road, I started moving all those bare naked statues out of sight because I didn't want him looking at them and me at the same time. My husband called me a hypocrite and a backslider. Was I wrong to get that stuff out of sight before I let the preacher in the house?

PINE BLUFF

DEAR PINE BLUFF: No in my opinion, GOOD sculpture, draped or otherwise, should offend no one. But since you apparently have no appreciation for the collection under any circumstances, keep it ditched and you'll have no problem person with my child and such a mishap occurred, I would have felt responsible because I should have been watching my child. But my child was in HER care, and it was due to HER negligence that the vase was broken. I am going to pay for it anyway to avoid hard feelings, but don't you think I am right?

EASY-GOING

DEAR EASY: Yes. But the lesson you learned was cheap at $45. Now that you are aware of how negligent your friend is, I hope you'll never entrust your children to her care again. The porcelain vase could have come down on your child's head.

CONFIDENTIAL TO SLEEPLESS IN B'HAM: Lying is like trying to hide in a fog. You dare not move about lest you bump into the truth. And when the fog blows away you are exposed anyhow. Tell the truth.

Personals

DEAR ABBY: I'm a 13-year-old girl who rides to and from school every day on the bus. Well, there is this cute boy who always ends up sitting near me no matter where I sit. He doesn't say "Hi," he just socks you. I don't bother him. In fact, I don't even look at him. I did everything my mother told me to do to ignore him, but nothing works. What should I say or do?

NEEDS HELP

DEAR NEEDS: Tell the bus driver, and let HIM deal with the boy. If it makes the socks any less painful, the boy is probably mad about you and is only trying to get your attention.

DEAR ABBY: If you were a personal friend of mine and I left my two small children with you while I went to the doctor, would you hold me responsible for an expensive vase which my 14-month-old child had broken? As soon as I walked in the door this friend told me that I owed her $45 for the vase my child had pulled off an end table. Had I been visiting this

U.S. Olympians Win Prestige Events in Tokyo

TOKYO (AP) — Teen-age wizards of the water and a track and field team that overshadowed the Soviet Union in depth and versatility gave a definite red, white and blue tint to the 18th Olympic Games.

Although the Russians collected the most medals, the Americans picked up the biggest cache of championship golds and took the limelight from their Soviet rivals in the prestige events.

The Stars and Stripes were raised so often over the main stadium and the swimming pool that one American competitor said, "I thought they would wear out the flag" and Japanese school children went through the streets whistling "The Star Spangled Banner."

American swimmers and divers won 16 of 22 events, smashing the world record in almost all of them, in a near sweep of the swimming competition. The U.S. added 14 gold medals in track and field, winning the 5,000 and 10,000 meters for the first time in history.

The Yanks maintained their 60-year monopoly in basketball, crushing the Russians in the final game 73-59, and suffered disappointments only in boxing, wrestling and weight-lifting.

It was in these events, plus gymnastics, that the Russians picked up the bulk of their 96 medals, six more than the American total. But it was overall a sub-par performance for the giants from behind the Iron Curtain.

The Soviet coaches came in for criticism from Pravda, the Communist organ, and Gabriel Korobkov, the head track and field coach, said bitterly, "Our athletes are too old and worn out — we need new blood."

He also said he was quitting. One pundit remarked that his next post may be an assignment in Siberia.

Don Schollander, 18-year-old from Lake Oswego, Ore., emerged as the outstanding individual of the Games, winning four gold medals. His counterpart on the women's side was a 15-year-old free-style and butterfly specialist from Glendora, Calif., Sharon Stouder.

Sharon also won four medals — three gold and a silver — and her silver was one of the most precious of all. In winning it, she cracked the one minute barrier in the women's 100-meter free-style, swimming it in 59.9 seconds to finish second behind the amazing Dawn Fraser of Australia, winner of her third straight gold.

Billy Mills, a half-Sioux Indian from Pine Ridge, S.D., produced the biggest upset of the Games when he won the 10,000-meter run — showing his heels to the greatest distance runners of the age.

Talk that the United States athletes were too soft and pampered to win in tests of strength and endurance was spiked when Bob Schul won the 5,000.

Bob Hayes, the Florida A&M flyer, established himself as the world's fastest human by winning the 100-meter dash in a record-tying 10 seconds flat and anchoring the U.S. 400-meter relay team to another gold.

Haile Selassie's palace guard, Abebe Bikila, won an unprecedented second straight marathon, with shoes instead of barefoot as at Rome. New Zealand's Peter Snell ran away with both the 800 and the 1,500 and set his sights on a 3:50 mile.

Wyomia Tyus in the 100 and Edith McGuire in the 200 led the women's track and field forces, but a bad baton pass on the final leg cost the American girls the 400-meter relay, won by Poland in world record time.

Away from the big arenas, the U.S. heroes were the eight-oar Vesper Crew of Philadelphia, surprise winner of the blue ribbon event in rowing, and Billy Frazier, a Philadelphia butcher who punched his way to the heavyweight title in boxing.

It was a good Olympics for Japan, both on and off the field. The Japanese collected 29 medals in all, placing fourth behind the Soviets 96, America's 90 and the 48 by the combined German team.

Mustangs Defeat MT Reserves, 28-2

Westfall High School defeated the Miami Trace reserves, 28-2, Saturday night in a game scheduled to fill an opening in the schedule when Laurelville dropped the grid sport.

The Mustangs scored twice on passes and twice on running plays. Steve Neff booted a pair of extra points and the other two markers for the winners came when an MT half-back was tackled in the end zone for a safety.

Miami Trace's two points also came on a safety.

The Westfall gridgers piled up 357 yards in winning their second game of the season. They completed six of 14 pass attempts, including Gary Liff's two touchdown aerials for a total of 81 yards through the air and compiled 20 first down.

THE VISITORS were held to 54 yards on the ground and 77 through the air, completing six of 15 passes. The little Panthers had only seven first downs.

Although the Mustangs were penalized 155 yards and had a pair of touchdowns called back, Coach Asa Elsea had nothing but praise for the officials.

"They did a real good job," Elsea noted. "I couldn't complain about a single call. I'm glad we made the mistakes this week, instead of next week when we play Paint Valley."

Tom Hamman and Norman O'Connor led the Mustang defensive game. Each was in on seven tackles.

The leading ground gainer was Bruce List who ran for 110 yards and two touchdowns.

Dave Rowland gained 101 yards in 12 carries. He snagged one of Liff's paydirt passes and Bill Gibson caught the other.

Defensive Unit Assures Browns Win

CLEVELAND (AP) — The Cleveland Browns can thank the defensive unit for putting them in the top spot all alone in the Eastern Division as they head into the last half of the National Football League season.

The Browns defeated their traditional New York rivals 42-20 Sunday and it was the defense that got a large share of the credit.

Two recovered fumbles and an intercepted pass, all coming in quick succession in the fourth quarter, turned a close game into a rout, and the Browns had their fifth victory.

They went into the game tied with the St. Louis Cardinals, each with a 4-1-1 record. But Dallas upset the Cards, and the Browns went into first place.

A week ago the defense starred as Bernie Parrish ran back an intercepted pass to give the Browns a narrow victory over Dallas.

The crowd of 81,050 Sunday, the largest for a regular season game this year, was treated to the best scoring performance of the season by the Browns, but again it was the defense that made the difference. Pass interceptions by Galen Fiss and Jim Houston were turned into touchdowns, and Paul Wiggins scored with a recovered fumble. Charley Scales, working with the kickoff unit, scored with a second recovered fumble.

Leroy Kelly, rookie Cleveland halfback, raced 68 yards with a punt return for another touchdown. Quarterback Frank Ryan hit on scoring passes to Paul Warfield and Gary Collins, and Jim Ninowski, making his first appearance of the season in the closing minutes, tossed a scoring pass to John Brewer.

Ruth Jessen Cops Thunderbird Title

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP) — Blonde Ruth Jessen has moved up to No. 2 among feminine money winners along this year's golf trail with a three-stroke victory in the $11,000 Phoenix Thunderbird Ladies Golf Open Sunday.

Her 72-hole total of 289 was

Hurlbut, Smith Are Named In Tiger Gridiron Victory

Mansil Hurlbut and Charlie Smith were named "Tigers of the Week" by the Circleville coaching staff.

Smith, an end, had scores of 94 on defense and 92 on offense. Hurlbut had an 80 on offense and 84 on defense.

Tiger Coach Paul Starr reported scores this week were the highest overall for the season. He pointed out this was unusual because Hillsboro brought a fine team here.

"Usually when we play better teams, scores go way down," he commented. "And Hillsboro was a real good team."

THAT quarterback (Jim McConaughy) was the finest we've seen for a while," Starr said. "He was consistently connecting on that third and fourth down pass."

Also scoring high for the Tigers were Don Fausnaugh, Jack

Martin, Jeff Ankrom, Gary Hughes and Eddie Smith.

Mick Tomlinson and Tom Jenkins had good offensive scores.

Leading the "Tiger Head" winners was Hurlbut. The Tiger co-captain intercepted three passes, had one kickoff tackle and a punt tackle for a total of five.

Chet Hill had three kickoff tackles and Chet Iery had one. Fausnaugh and Eddie Smith both came up with interceptions. Ankrom, Charlie Smith and Fausnaugh each three a key block.

JIM STARKEY recovered a fumble while Iery and Tom Fletcher deflected passes. Steve Dade led the tackling department for the Tigers with eight and one assist.

Charlie Smith had seven tackles and three assists. Jack Martin had seven and two assists.

No Southwest Conference team has ever gotten off 100 plays in a single game, but TCU came close in 1956 with a total of 97 rushing and passing plays against SMU.

CORONA, Calif. (AP) — On the 66th hole of the 72-hole Mountain View Open Golf Tournament, Jack McGowan realized he would never win his first PGA tournament by playing it safe.

Instead, he played it bold. At the 66th he was one stroke ahead of rookie Dick Sikes of Cleveland. At the 72nd he was 11 shots under par — and four strokes ahead of Sikes for first place in the $40,000 tournament.

It was the Largo Fla., golfer's first win in four years as a pro. McGowan had a 273, Sikes a 277, followed closely by Jack Rule at 278, Charles Coody 279 and Billy Casper 280.

three strokes up on Mickey Wright of Dallas, still the year's top woman golfer with earnings of $24,415.

Miss Jessen's first prize of $1,350 brought her total winnings to $21,218, making her the second woman golfer to cross the $20,000 mark this year.

Bucks Hope Purdue's Foes Pave Way to Loop Crown

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The feeling is growing that Ohio State's football team has the tools and talent to go all the way to the Big Ten title and the Rose Bowl — if it can get just a bit of help from one of Purdue's next four foes.

The Bucks, tops in the national pool, tied with Purdue a 3-0 for the conference lead, and No. 1 in the league in both offensive and defensive point columns, wrecked Wisconsin 28-3 Saturday. At the same time Purdue was nicking Iowa's aerial circus 19-14 — and the Bucks invade the Hawkeye home this week.

Ohio has only Northwestern and Michigan to play in the league after Saturday, while Purdue goes against defending champion Illinois this week and then catches Michigan State, Minnesota and resurgent Indiana. Ohio needs help from one of them since the Boilermakers play seven games and the Bucks six in the circuit. If both go unbeaten the Lafayette corps takes it all.

While Ohio State hopes to add another step toward Pasadena this week, Bowling Green and Miami have a crucial Mid-American date at Oxford. The host Redskins, fresh from their 28-7 win over Northwestern, were dumped 10-7 by defending champion Ohio University Saturday. The Miami team, still fuming over the disrespect shown by the Bobcats, could knock the Falcons off the top of the heap by handing them their first loss in seven.

Wittenberg, top-ranked in the smaller-college field, could wrap up its fourth straight Ohio Conference crown by beating Ohio Wesleyan's battered forces Saturday at Springfield. The Lutherans are leading with six straight and Wesleyan has a 1-4 record.

One championship was decided over the weekend. Ashland defeated Defiance 16-7 to complete a sweep over three foes in the Mid-Ohio Conference. Findlay was bumped off the top of the statewide standings by Eastern Kentucky, 17-14, only the second win for the Blue Grass team, and Miami's loss to Ohio U. was its first.

Toledo, after five straight losses, finally hit the victory column by 21-13 over Western Michigan — leaving only Case

Tech and Kenyon without a win this season.

Out-of-state teams won five of eight games with Ohio teams over the weekend, first time the Buckeyes have lost a series, but the season record is still 47-28-2 in favor of the local lads.

IN THE COURT OF COMMON PLEAS
PICKAWAY COUNTY, OHIO
No. 24053
NOTICE BY PUBLICATION
MARY E. WILHELM
Route No. 1
Circleville, Ohio,

Plaintiff,

Ohio State, 4 Other Teams get Scribe's Nod for Bowl Invites

By BOB HOOBING
Associated Press Sports Writer
The nation's unbeaten, untied big five — Ohio State, Notre Dame, Alabama, Arkansas, Nebraska — are charter members of college football's Mid-season Mounting Pressure and Cliche Society in which there are these taboos:

1. overconfidence
 2. optimism
 3. bowl talk
- Unencumbered by such restrictions, the athletic board or alumni, the scribe can fearlessly list a possible postseason line-up and risk being barred by the American Football Coaches Association from all dressing rooms.

Rose Bowl — Ohio State vs. Oregon.

Sugar Bowl — Alabama or Louisiana State vs. Notre Dame or Georgia Tech.

Cotton Bowl — Arkansas vs. Nebraska.

Orange Bowl — Texas vs. Alabama or Louisiana State.

Gator Bowl — Florida-Florida State winner vs. Duke.

Second-ranked Notre Dame, off to its best start since its last unbeaten season in 1953, beat Sanford 28-6 Saturday with Sugar Bowl representatives in the stands "to demonstrate interests."

"Who talks about bowl games in the middle of the season?" asked Irish Coach Ara Parseghian. "This is a matter for the athletic board, anyway."

Notre Dame has had an anti-bowl policy since the 27-10 conquest of Stanford in the 1925 Rose Bowl. A few years ago, however, Athletic Director Moose Krause suggested he might take kindly to an invitation when the Irish merited one, carefully pointing out he was not speaking for the board. This may be the year.

To better explain the post-season prognostications take a closer look at conference and regional breakdowns:

Big Ten
Top-ranked Ohio State, under the firm hand of Woody Hayes, appears to have the inside track for the crown and the trip to Pasadena although Purdue still shares first place with the Buckeyes. Defending champion Illinois and Michigan are far from out of it, too. But Ohio State has already beaten the Illini. Purdue-Illinois and Ohio State-Iowa are big games this Saturday with Michigan-Ohio State in the season's windup.

Southeastern
Alabama, the No. 3 club Bear Bryant calls "the best crew of young folks I've ever been around," solidified its first place grip by edging Florida 17-14. The Crimson Tide keeps rolling even with quarterback Joe Namath injured because Steve Sloan takes over so smoothly. The ninth-ranked Gators missed a field goal on the final play. No. 7 LSU salvaged a 3-3 tie with underdog Tennessee in a fierce defensive war. LSU is worried about an ambush from traditional rival Mississippi — having its troubles so far and tied by Vanderbilt 7-7 — before the Tigers take on Alabama in the big one Nov. 7 at Birmingham. LSU still hasn't lost. Florida and LSU have a hurricane-postponed date Dec. 5.

Southwest
Arkansas, fourth-ranked and owner of the only victory over Texas in 17 games, heads the race for the host Cotton Bowl berth and will resume league campaigning against Texas

A&M after a nonconference 17-0 breeze over Wichita, Texas. No. 6, remained close by edging Rice on a pair of field goals. Next: SMU.

FAR WEST-AAWU
At first glance its a five-way scramble among Oregon, Oregon State, Southern California, UCLA and Washington State. Each has a 1-0 league record and not a hint of national ranking among them. Oregon is the lone unbeaten after nipping Washington 7-0 and is this corner's pick in the Nov. 21 showdown with Oregon State. State upset eighth-ranked Syracuse 31-13. Southern California outlasted California 26-2. AAWU fathers will think twice before sending to Pasadena the Trojans who already have lost to Ohio State 17-0. Washington State, upset loser to Idaho 28-13, and UCLA, which has lost its early sharpness recently, figure to begin settling down in the standings soon.

Big Eight
Fifth-ranked Nebraska held Colorado to minus-three rushing yards en route to a 21-3 victory. Kansas kept pace in the race by nudging Oklahoma State 14-13. So far the Huskers have shown too much defense for the rest of the league. Missouri, 10-0, conqueror of Iowa State, is the roadblock dead ahead. Nebraska's Orange Bowl champs doubtless would like to try a different post-season setting this trip.

Atlantic Coast
Unbeaten, once-tied Duke, which whipped Army 6-0 with field goals and defense, is in command after turning back chief rival North Carolina state.

Independents
Georgia Tech, unranked but unbeaten, commands attention although scared before edging Tulane 7-6. Florida State, which previously humiliated Kentucky 48-6, had underdog Virginia Tech rattle its 10th rating 20-11. Twice-beaten Syracuse lost prestige on the West Coast. Remembering Pitt couldn't get a major bowl invitation with a 9-1 record in 1963 it now appears certain the East will not have representative at one of the big five postseason classics this year. The service academies are all sub-500. Villanova is still unbeaten. Notre Dame remains far ahead in this category.

Roger Maris of the Yankees this year had his second highest batting average in the majors. He hit .281 in 1960 he batted .283. He has been up eight years.

Property Owners May Obtain Quail Hunting Agreements

There is still time for landowners to have quail hunting agreements processed before the opening day of the upland game season, it has been announced by Russ Tippet, Pickaway County game protector.

There is no minimum acreage requirement and property owners may exclude any portion of their property from quail hunting by providing a map or legal description clearly showing areas to be hunted and those not to be hunted.

Seasons, bag limits and all other rules or regulations pertaining to the taking or possession of quail as established by statute or orders of the Division of Wildlife shall apply on lands covered by the agreement.

The agreement shall in no way affect rights of the owner to determine what persons may hunt upon the lands. Tippet emphasized.

THE OWNER, however, shall permit the Division of Wildlife or designated agent to census the area at any time.

The agreement may be terminated in two ways: Either party, by sending a 30-day written notice by certified mail to the other may end quail hunting; the transfer of ownership of lands from the owner to another person voids the agreement.

Applications for quail hunting agreements may be obtained from Tippet. His telephone number is Ashville, YU 3-4553.

OSU Rural Sociology Class Will Visit This Community

A group of students from the Ohio State University will be visiting the Circleville community during the next few weeks.

The students are members of a class in sociology taught by Dr. John B. Mitchell, associate professor of rural sociology at Ohio State.

The 15 members of the class are studying the structure and function of organizations and institutions in communities. They are interested in how a community is organized and how it gets things done.

Field experience in the form of visits to an actual community is considered an important part of the students' work for the course. These visits are designed to give them an understanding of social organization.

THE STUDENTS will also have an opportunity to become acquainted with the dynamic social processes at work in a real community situation.

As part of the field project, they will interview citizens of the Circleville community. The information obtained during these visits will be kept confidential.

Car Aerials Broken

Two cases of vandalism concerning parked cars were reported to city police during the weekend.

Both involved destruction of car radio aerials. The complaints were lodged by Vern Overly, 233 S. Scioto St., and John W. Huffman, Mt. Sterling.

Local Man Found Dead In His Home

Mr. Herbert Walter Jones Sr., 62, of 329 Barnes Ave., was found dead at 11 a. m. yesterday in his residence.

The body was found by a friend. City police, called to investigate, said the man apparently died of natural causes.

Mr. Jones was born Nov. 17, 1901, in Ross County, the son of John and Susie Ward Jones. His wife, Edna Mae Chester Jones, preceded him in death.

Surviving are one son, Herbert W. Jones Jr., 329 Barnes Ave.; two daughters, Mrs. Roy Roll, Route 1, Kingston; Mrs. Marjorie Stevens, Ashville; one stepson, Merle Miller, Hallsville; 12 grandchildren; five great-grandchildren; three brothers, Arthur, Russell and Ralph, all of Chillicothe.

Services will be 2 p. m. tomorrow in the Church of Christ in Christian Union with the Rev. Edward Adkins officiating. Burial will be in Hallsville Cemetery.

Friends may call at the Deffenbaugh Funeral Home.

The United States bought Alaska from Russia in 1867, but most Americans ignored it as a land of Eskimos, igloos and snow until the 1890s when Seattle newspaper headlines blared "Gold! Gold! Gold! Sixty-eight Klondikers bring back a ton of gold!"

The grand champion pumpkin pie was purchased for Bob Allen of Springfield for the sum of $5. Auctioneer Willson Leist reports that Allen has purchased the champion pie here for the past several years. The Springfield resident also purchased three other pies. According to Leist the auction was one of the most successful ever held here.

GRAND CHAMPIONS — Winners of the final Bake-A-Pumpkin-Pie contest, Elaine Goldschmidt, (left), 901 Atwater Ave. and her mother Mrs. David Goldschmidt, (right), 901 Atwater Ave., are presented trophies from Ruth Anne Leffer, Florida Sun Goddess. The trophies were donated by the Harden Chevrolet Co. and Radcliffe Cleaners. The winners also each received an award of $50.

An AMAZING Record!

Judge Ammer has handled 3,195 cases in 7 1/2 years. Out of those 3,195 cases, only three have been reversed by the Appeals Court. NO DECISION BY JUDGE AMMER HAS EVER BEEN UPSET BY THE OHIO SUPREME COURT!

Judge Ammer has been assigned by the Chief Justices of the Ohio Supreme Court to hear cases in 10 other counties, ranging from Ohio's smallest (Vinton) to the state's largest (Cuyahoga). This is according to law (Ohio Revised Code Sec. 2503.04).

The world's leading acoustical experts made the test.

The U. S. Auto Club certified the results: at 20 mph... at 40 mph... at 60 mph...

The 1965 Ford rides quieter than a Rolls-Royce!

Prior to the introduction of the 1965 Fords, the country's leading automotive writers drove the new models at Dearborn. Most of these experts remarked about the extraordinary quietness and smoothness of the Ford ride. An automotive writer, in Mechanix Illustrated, said, "If there is a quieter car made in this country, I haven't driven it."

Quiet Means Quality... Since quiet is a traditional measure of car quality, Ford engineers designed the '65 Ford for maximum quietness. To illustrate this quality achievement, Ford chose to make a documented test against the world's finest luxury car—Rolls-Royce.

Bolt, Beranek and Newman, Inc., world's leading acoustic consultants to government and industry, conducted the tests under supervision of the authoritative United States Auto Club. All cars were tuned to factory specifications.

The Result... The Fords proved to be slightly quieter at all speeds.

The official test report reads, in part: "At all moving speeds, on both courses, the Fords were quieter than the Rolls-Royces."

The Difference... The sound level difference, to be sure, is small—but it is there. At 60 miles an hour, Ford was actually 2.8 decibels* quieter than Rolls-Royce. At 40, Ford was 5.5 decibels* quieter. At 20, Ford was 4.9 decibels* quieter. However small these advantages over Rolls-Royce may be, they are significant evidence of quality—important to anyone buying a car in Ford's class.

Take A Test Drive... A key—and a warm welcome—await you at your Ford Dealer's. The key, incidentally, fits in the lock no matter which side is up—symbolic of the hundreds of advances you'll find in any Ford you road-test. Come in and see for yourself.

*Decibels are the universally recognized units for measuring the volume of sound.

SOUND LEVEL (All readings in decibels)

MPH	FORD	ROLLS-ROYCE	FORD QUIETER BY
20 mph	67.4	72.3	4.9
40 mph	75.9	81.4	5.5
60 mph	82.6	85.4	2.8

TEST CONDITIONS: Dry, level, moderately smooth concrete divided highway; light, quartering wind. All cars operated at steady 20, 40 and 60 mph with all windows and vents closed. TEST EQUIPMENT: Bruel & Kjaer precision octave band analyzer, recording through direct observation and through Nagra precision tape recorder. Data expressed in Perceived Noise decibels. TEST CONDUCTED on September 24, 1964, by Bolt, Beranek and Newman, Inc., of Cambridge, Mass., the world's largest acoustic consulting firm. TEST CERTIFIED by the United States Auto Club. CARS TESTED: Two brand-new Rolls-Royce Silver Cloud III sedans, V-8 with automatic transmission, list price in New York $16,655 each. Three 1965 Fords, each with 289-cubic-inch V-8 engine and Cruise-O-Matic transmission: Galaxie 500 LTD, Galaxie 500/XL and Galaxie 500 4-Door Sedan.
